

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, July 19. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 21.

Vienna, July 8.

THE 6th the Imperial Court went to the Palace of Favorita, to spend the Summer there: Which that they may do without Danger, the usual Guard of this City and 500 Dragoons of the Regiment of Schlick are sent thither: They are to be quarter'd in the Villages thereabouts, and to be some of them constantly patrolling. The foremost of the Danish Troops, viz. the Queen's Regiment, is arriv'd here; and the rest are impatiently expected, that the Army in Hungary being reforc'd by them, may enter upon Action. 'Tis advis'd from Gran, that the Malecontents which hover'd about Comorra are driven away, and that the Passages by Land and Water are well secur'd by Guards: But on the other Hand, Giulia is given over for lost, and Arath and Pest are thought to be in great Danger. Count Schlick having muster'd the Imperial Troops in the Island of Schut is return'd hither: His Regiment is given to the Count of Altheim. 'Tis talk'd that Count Schlick, as Commissary General, is to go and muster the other Imperial Armies as well in Italy as in the Empire, and see that they be furnish'd with all Necessaries. The 6th an Express was sent from hence to the Hague, with the Justification Prince Lewis of Baden has written hither of his late Proceedings with relation to the Projects propos'd to have been executed on the Moselle; and with it a Scheme for further military Operations this Campaign. The Emperor has nominated Baron Seylern and the Counts Zinzendorf, Wratislaw, and Martinitz, to consider maturely the Affair of the Bank lately set up here; of which Ministers 2 were for, and 2 against the establishing of that Bank. General Glockelsberg is taken up still with the Siege of the Fort over against Fedwar. Prince Maximilian of Hanover, set out Post from hence to Day to go to the Army of the Empire.

From the Harl. and Amst. Courant, dated July 25.

Vienna, July 11. The 9th Instant his Imperial Majesty took a Review of the 2 Danish Regiments of Foot of General Harboe and Collonel Malzan, that were arriv'd here from the upper Palatinat: They consist of 1200 Men each, and Yesterday set forward for the Island of Schut. This Evening 2 other Danish Regiments of Foot of 1200 Men each, commanded by the Collonels Endt and Oosten, arriv'd here: And in a few Days we expect the Regiment of Dragoons of Major General Gersdorf, as also that of Horse of Collonel Dithmar, of 800 Men each. The Secretary of Baron Sirmay, who was lately sent to Hungary to endeavour to set on Foot a Treaty of Accomodation with the Malecontents, is return'd hither from Erla; and we are inform'd brings Advice, that the Heads of the Malecontents have signify'd they will accept the Mediation of the Queen of England and the States of Holland. in case the last Resolutions of the Emperor, (which were sent to them some Days ago but were not come to their Hands when this Secretary came from them,) appear any thing equitable and reasonable to them. In the mean time, they seem to be not at all dismay'd at the Approach of the Danish Troops and the augmenting of the Imperial Forces employ'd against them. They have set Men to work to repair and strengthen the Fortifications of Neuhausel: And Prince Ragotski with a Body of 20000 Men, is preparing to lay Siege to Pest, to give a Diversion to the Body of Troops commanded by General Glockelsberg. Count Forgatz with the Malecontents he commands has made himself Master of Samas-Uyvar and Medgies, 2 important Posts in Transilvania.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 24.

The Advices from Munich say General Gronsfield is return'd thither from Vienna, and that he will shortly proceed from thence to the Army on the upper Rhine. Parties of Horse are posted in several Parts of the open Country of Bavaria, to prevent any Disorders. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria, has written a Letter to the Emperor, which is in Substance as follows.

IT would be my unhappyness, to appear the first Time in my Life before your Imperial Majesty, to condole with you upon the Death of the Emperor your Father of most glorious Memory, did it not at the same Time give me an Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne, to wish you all manner of Blessings, with constant Prosperity and long Encrease of Glory without Adversity; and to beseech your Majesty to look with an Eye of Compassion on the sad Condition I am in with my Brothers and Sister, and to take us, as abandon'd Pupils, into your most gracious Protection, which we will endeavour to deserve from our tender Childhood by our Submission, Fidelity, and Obedience, which we are oblig'd to do, as well by our Duty as by the Honour we have to belong to your august House. If we be suffer'd to do nothing but to deplore the Condition into which we are fallen, yet we hope the Innocence of our Conduct will have Efficacy before the Throne of your Imperial Majesty's Mercy: And we most humbly beg you will be pleas'd to permit Madam the Electress our Mother to return to us, under such Restrictions as your Majesty in your great Clemency shall think fit: Your Majesty cannot give us greater Comfort, nor a greater Proof of your Compassion, tho' there may be against it some Considerations that are unknown to us. The Field-Marshal Gronsfield, as appears by the 2 Copies subjoyn'd, did grant the 9th of February to Madam our Mother a Passport for her safe Return; and in the second of the 3d of March he inserted this remarkable Clause, 'That in her Passage all Marks of Honour and Civility should be shewn to her, and that doing so was to execute the Orders and Intentions of his Imperial Majesty. Your known Generosity can have no Bounds towards the, who on so sorrowful an Occasion cast themselves the first Time at your Feet, as I do at present with all imaginable Submission, recommending my Brothers and Sister to the exalted Clemency of your Imperial Majesty, &c.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 21.

From the Imperial Army near Lauterbourg, July 13. The Marshal de Villars seeing it was too hazardous to attempt to force our Lines, is retir'd near to Croon-Weissembourg with his Army. The 11th Instant we had Advice, that 2 Detachments of his Troops had possess'd themselves of the Castles of Rodern and Hatten, as they had done before of that of Selz; and that the Garrisons are sent Prisoners of War to Strasbourg. The 12th 20 Deserters Foot or Horse came over over to us, and reported, that the Marshal de Villars was storing a great Magazine in Croon-Weissenbourg: and that he had caus'd 3 Bridges to be laid over the Lauter, in order to send his Horse to forage towards Landau. The same Day one of our Parties took 96 French Soldiers at Kirchbaum; and we talk of exchanging them and other Prisoners formerly taken from the Enemy, against the 420 Men taken in Selz Rodern and Hatten. We have receiv'd a Confirmation, that the Enemy have got together 3000 Waggons near Strasbourg, and that they have summoned in a like Number in the level Country about Brisac on the other side of the Rhine. To Day we receiv'd Advice, that the Marshal de Villars waits the Return of an Express he sent to the King his Master, for orders whether to undertake some Siege in these Parts, or to send a Detachment to Flanders or elsewhere.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 21.

Frankfort, July 15. The Elector of Mentz arriv'd here to Day with all his Court from Bamberg. His Electoral Highness was complimented at his Arrival by the Clergy and Magistrates of this City; and in the Evening he proceeded on his Journey to Mentz. At his Arrival and Departure, he was saluted with a Discharge of the Cannon on our Ramparts. The Count de Nassau Weillbourg, General of the Elector Palatin's Troops, is gone to visit the Prince of Baden at Swalbach. The Palatin Troops and those of the Circle of Westphalia that were on the Moselle, are in full March to form a Camp near Mentz; and 'tis said 6 Regiments of Palatins that were on the Frontier of Alsace, are in Motion to join them. The 10 or 12000 Prussians formerly mentioned, are encamp'd at Rhinhausen near Philipsbourg, waiting the Return of Monsieur Arnheim their General, who is gone to the Imperial Army near Lauterbourg to know which way they shall March. The Troops in the Lines of Buhl, have been reinforced by 3 of the Bishop of Wurtzbourg's Regiments; and the Bridge of Boats that was at Spire, is carried up to Stollhoffen, that those Troops may have a free Communication with the Camp at Lauterbourg: And just now Advice is come, that the Bridge of Philipsbourg is carried in Waggons up towards Fort Louis, the Design of the Imperialists being to make a Diversion thereabouts, to keep the Enemy from sending Detachments any whither. Their Army is not retir'd into their Lines at Haguenau, as has been reported.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated July 24.

Haguenau, July 15. The Marshal de Villars is at present at Weissenbourg, and waits for Orders from the King to enter upon Action with his Army, which consists of 92 Battalions and 134 Squadrons. The Enemy have render'd their Camp at Lauterbourg inaccessible. New Fortifications are made about this Town, for its Security in case the Marshal de Villars march out of these Parts.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 18.

Metz, July 20. The 28th of last Month the Marquis de Conflans, who commands on this Frontier a Body of about 12000 Men, pass'd the Sarre and put a Garrison into Treves: He has caus'd the Lines which the Enemy had made along the Sarre, and on the other side of the Moselle to be level'd; and has sent to Sar-louis a Convoy of 400 Waggons to supply what the Marshal de Villars took out of the Magazines when he pass'd by that Place with his Army.

From the Harl. and Amst. Courant, dated July 25.

Frankfort, July 19. 'Tis advis'd from Italy, that General Toralba will be exchange'd for the late Governour of Mirandola, and that the Garrison of that Place will be exchange'd against a like Number of French or Spaniards. 'Tis reported the Enemy's Army near Haguenau, will divide themselves into 2 Bodies; one of which will continue about Croon-Weissenbourg, and the other will be posted on the Rhine in the Plain of Wayen or Endingen. The Palatin Regiments that are in the Pay of the States General, the Troops of the Circle of Westphalia that were on the Moselle, and 6 other Regiments of Palatins, that are encamp'd between Mentz and Creutznach, are to joyn the Army at Lauterbourg. 'Tis reported some Persons of great Quality, and Generals, will go to the Prince of Baden at Swalbach, to consult with him what the Army of the Empire had best undertake.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 24.

Frankfort, July 19. The Marquis de Conflans, who commands the French Troops on the Moselle, invest'd Hornburg Yesterday; with design to lay Siege to it in Form. General Merci covers Landau with 2000 Imperial Horse.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 21.

Cologne, July 17. To Day 5 Boats came down hither from the Moselle, having on Board about 600 English Officers and Soldiers, whom their Army had left behind sick; and who being so well recover'd as to be able to march, are to set out to Morrow for Maestricht, to rejoin their respective Regiments.

Harwich, July 17. On Sunday the Eagle Packet Boat sail'd from hence, with a Mail for Holland. The Marquis of Caermarthen with his Squadron and all the Merchant-Ships under his Convoy, is arriv'd here from the Coast of Holland, being oblig'd to return by contrary Winds.

Never Acted there before.

AT the Theatre Royal in Little-Lincolns-Inn-fields, to Morrow being Friday the 20th of July, will be presented, a Comedy call'd, Amphitryon: or, The Two Soldes Written by Mr. John Dryden. With proper Entertainments of Singing and Dancing in and between the Acts. Note, That the Company will continue to Act there till Her Majesty's Theatre in the Hay-Market be intirely finish'd.

This Play is Sold by R. Wellington at the Dolphin and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, where you may have most Novels.

Next Door to the Red Lion in Wandsworth, near Battersey, will be sold all sorts of Household Goods at reasonable Rates: on Monday next, being the 23d. of this Instant; the Sale begins at 8 a Clock in the Morning, and continues till all be Sold.

This Day being the 19th of this Instant July, continues the Sale of the Library of the late Reverend Mr. Thornton, Chaplain to his late Grace the Duke of Bedford; by Auction at Tom's Coffee-house adjoining to Ludgate, exactly at 5, beginning Page 17 in the English Octavo's. Catalogues to be had at the Place of Sale.

For Sale by the Candle,

At the Marine Coffee-house in Birch-lane, on Friday July the 20th, at 3 a Clock in the Afternoon, 208 Hogsheads, Barrels, Pipes and Chests of Red and White Wines: To be seen in a Vault over-against the Bull-head Tavern, the Corner of Tower-Street next Tower-hill; And in another Vault at the Chain on Tower-hill: And in a Vault in Crutchet-fryars, over-against the Cross-Keys near the Navy-Office, there to be delivered free of all Duties. Attendance will be given at the Places aforesaid till the time of Sale, for the Buyers to view and taste the Wines. Catalogues may be had at the Outroper's Office on the Royal Exchange, and at the Place of Sale. Thomas Gurbay.

Just Publish'd

An Exact Map of all the Lines in Flanders; with an Account of the several Attempts made to force them, and the particulars of this last successful one by the Duke of Marlborough, July the 7th 1705, O. S. Sold by B. Bragg in Ave-Mary-Lane, useful to all that would understand that Matter, and contrived to be sent by the Post. Price 4d.

The History of Flanders, from its first being establish'd as a Sovereignty, to the Death of the late King of Spain; with a Relation of all the Wars that have happened in that Country during that Time. To which is prefix'd a general Survey of Flanders, illustrated with the most exact Map ever yet made of that Country, done by Mr. Moll; necessary to be consulted at this time, for the better understanding the glorious Progress of the Confederate Forces under the Duke of Marlborough. Sold by J. Darby in Bartholomew-Clofe.

A new Map of the Seat of War on the Rhine, the Maas, the Mosell, &c. Shewing the distances between Town and Town by Inspection, wherein is laid down the French Lines from Antwerp to Namur. Also a Plan of Modern Fortification, explaining all the Forms used in Besieging and Defending of Places, useful as a Pocket Companion to all that Read the publick News; the whole being curiously Engraven. Price 6d. Printed for John Senex, next Door to the Fleece-Tavern in Cornhill, where may be had the best Draughts of Gibraltar and Liege.

Newly publish'd

A serious Discourse between a Minister and his Parishioner about Conformity. By William May, M. A. late Rector of Wakes Colne in Essex. Price 6d. Dr. Beveridge's (now Lord Bishop of Agher) Sermon of the Happiness of the Saints in Heaven, the 7th Edition. Price 3d. or 20s. a Hundred. Mr. William Swoyler's Earnest Persuasive to Family Piety, the 3d. Edition. Price 1s. His Sermon of the Reasonableness of observing the 30th of January's Fast. Price 3d. All sold by Ann Speed over-against Jonathan's Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley in Cornhill, where are sold Blank Receipts for the Collectors of the Queen's Tax, and Trophy-Tax.

Eliza: An Epick Poem. In Ten Books. By Sir Richard Blackmore, Kt. M. D. And Fellow of the Colledge of Physicians in London. To which is annex'd, An Index, explaining Persons, Countries, Cities, Rivers, &c. Printed for A. and J. Churchill, at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.